Are you homeless and looking for a safe, permanent home?

SRDC understands that the help you need begins with finding a place to live—even if you're struggling financially.

Who we help

We offer housing to people with little regular income who cannot afford a place to live, with special consideration for veterans experiencing homelessness.

What we offer

The Norbo Hotel, located in Skid Row, has 56 Single-Room Occupancy units offering a clean, safe environment for adults with an income of 40% of median or below. Transportation, shopping, health, and recreational facilities are within one mile. Units include:

- Shared kitchen facility
- Microwave
- On-site laundry
- Several accessible units
